SIdM Degree Dissertation Award Fourth edition 2024

The Italian Musicological Society (SIdM) promotes, for the year 2024, the SIdM Award for the best degree thesis in musicology and ethnomusicology obtained in Italian and foreign universities and conservatories of music. The prize will be the publication of the dissertation in the series "Percorsi" (SIdM/Anthology Digital Publishing)

1 Requirements for the participation in the call

Participation in the call is reserved for SIdM members who have obtained a specialist/master's degree at any Italian or foreign university or conservatory or equivalent foreign institution. The thesis must relate to the musicological and ethnomusicological field, with no chronological or repertoire limitations to the subject treated.

The required degree must have been obtained no earlier than the academic year 2020-21.

2 Procedures and terms for submitting the application form

The application must be submitted by April 30, 2024 to the following addresses:

marco.mangani@unifi.it
segreteria@sidm.it

Please specify "SIdM 2024 Award" in the subject line of the email

The application, on plain paper and drawn up according to the attached model (Annex 1), must contain the following information:

- name and surname;
- personal data;
- thesis title;
- date and place of discussion;
- e-mail address (which will be used exclusively for any communication relating to this announcement) and telephone number.

Under penalty of exclusion, the following documentation must also be attached to the application:

- copy of the thesis in pdf format conforming to the original;
- copy of the degree certificate or second level academic diploma or equivalent qualification obtained abroad;
- annex 2;
- annex 3;
- copy of an identity document;
- annex 4.

Applications that do not fully meet the requirements will not be considered. The Participation implies competitors' full agreement to accept this regulation.

3 Responsibilities of the participants

Participating in the competition, you authorize the dissemination through press or through SIdM social media channels of all information relating to the SIdM Award and of various extracts of the thesis and / or subsequent monograph for promotional purposes. The editorial copyright of the monograph will be owned by the publisher and may not be transferred to third parties.

It is the responsibility of the authors to obtain permission from copyright holders and to pay any costs, and to ensure that the use of images, data and illustrations in the chapters do not violate copyright laws.

4 SIdM Award

The prize consists in the publication of the thesis in the series "Percorsi" (SIdM/Anthology Digital Publishing). The winner undertakes to submit his/her work in its final rendering ready for publication to the Board of the SIdM and to the scientific committee of the series no later than May 31, 2025.

5 Scholarship award procedure

The prize will be awarded through selection based on peer review by a Selection Committee designated by the SIdM Board and consisting of scholars from the the disciplinary fields related to the theses received. The SIdM website will communicate the formation of the Commission and its members.

The evaluation of the works will be based on the degree of innovation, originality and scientific perspectives of the thesis presented.

The Commission may not award the prize if, in its exclusive opinion, the adequate quality level is not reached. The Commission's judgment is unquestionable.

The winner will be notified of the awarding of the prize by e-mail, to the address indicated in the application form.

The outcome of the competition will be announced on the SIdM website too.

6 Treatment of personal data

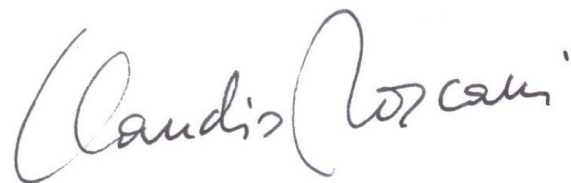

The processing of personal data collected for the purposes identified in this announcement will be treated in compliance with the provisions of the EU Regulation of April 27, 2016, n. 679 (General Data Protection Regulation, GDPR).
